Subject: Seeking Input re: Draft Voting EO Strategic Plan
Importance: High

Good evening,

I hope that you all are safe and well. Please find attached a draft of our report for the Voting EO Strategic Plan and the blank template for guidance.

I would like to send a draft to Janice and Monique tomorrow to review and clear, so that we can get to Nora at least by the 22nd. It is due to the Domestic Policy Council on September 23rd.

To summarize, there are a few items where your ideas are most welcome by COB tomorrow before we get clearance –

1. How can USTR promote voter registration and participation?
2. Determine whether USTR agency identity documents can be issued in a format that satisfies State voter ID laws.
3. How can USTR, compliant with the law, provide information on voter registration, especially in an accessible (i.e., language, ADA, etc.) manner?
4. How can USTR as an employer better support Federal employees 1) in learning about and exercise their civic rights; and 2) who want to volunteer as poll workers or non-partisan election observers?
5. Can USTR/ OA designate an individual to coordinate the agency's Federal Voting Assistance Program and ensure voter registration and voting services are available to overseas employees?
6. Are there other engagement ideas/ partnerships with NVRA agencies/ non-partisan organizations that USTR should consider?

Thanks again for your willingness to share ideas/ insights.

Good morning,

I hope that everyone enjoyed a restorative weekend.

With today being Primary Day in DC and the staff additions, I wanted to share USTR's Voting EO Strategic Plan that we adopted last year. This is two-fold, to ensure that it stays on our collective radars and identify opportunities to meet our promised non-partisan, civic participation encouragement activities, which include:

1. Include links to Vote.gov on USTR's public website and other official communications like press releases.
2. Amplify civic participation, voting, and election information on USTR's social media accounts.
3. Ensure that USTR domestic public engagement, as appropriate, reinforces the principles of civic participation and voter registration.
4. Provide advice to employee's on permitted political activities.
5. Designate a USTR official to share information about voting access to overseas employees.
